Notes from the Office

Dear Loyola Parishioners & Visitors,

Our family and extended family celebrated both a high school graduation and college graduation this month. I'm excited for both of these students as they begin new journeys in the near future. One will begin college out of state; the other will teach in another country. How wonderful it must be to have so much 'newness' completely in front of them. A new town, a new position, new experiences, new classmates and colleagues. What a time of trust, faith and hope.

Unfortunately, as we settle down, we tend not to have as many opportunities for 'newness' come our way. Maybe a new job or a new house now and then, but a completely open, new, unknown future? Not too often – it comes with the territory of getting a little older, having families and becoming part of a community (all good things). So how, in our somewhat settled lives, can we find that 'newness' to inspire us to have greater trust, faith and hope? We probably don't have to go very far if we are willing to take a closer, honest look and listen with open hearts.

God calls us throughout our lives to take on new ideas, new missions, and certainly new challenges. It's up to us to accept them as inspiration and invitations to bring us to greater trust, faith and hope. Our something new may be fairly simple: engage a new friend, join a new ministry, incorporate a new prayer in our daily routine. Or our something new might ask more of us: forgive parties involved in a situation that has become a burden to carry; treat those, who test our patience and good will, with respect as children of God; go beyond our comfort level to bring the love of Christ to someone in need.

Our new opportunities to grow in trust, faith and hope are undoubtedly there, just waiting for us to accept them. May this 'new season' of Ordinary Time be one of discovery and inspiration for all of us.

God bless,
Kathy Murzyn

MISSION APPEAL NEXT WEEKEND

Annually, each parish is assigned a specific mission project to assist in efforts to evangelize, form vocations and strengthen faith in communities all over the world. Next weekend we will welcome Jeff and Hillary James who will speak to us about the Lalmba Association. This Colorado-founded organization works in the most remote and impoverished communities in East Africa including Ethiopia, Eritrea and Kenya. Donations by check should be made payable to the parish.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN SPIRITUALS FESTIVAL

Tickets Available after Sunday Masses This Weekend

All are invited to this celebration of history and music next Saturday, June 11, 3 pm at Park Hill United Methodist Church, 5209 E. Montview Blvd. This is the first time the festival is being held in Colorado. Hear choirs from all over the country sing a variety of arrangements and styles of African American Spirituals. List prices for tickets are $30 for adults and $15 for students; tickets are available on a sliding scale so all can enjoy the performances. Tickets may also be through <http://www.blwspiritualvoices.org/events.html>. (Eventbrite fees apply) or by calling the BLW Spiritual Voices hotline at (720) 460-8219.

VOLUNTEER MOVERS

Catholic Charities is in great need of individuals with access to a truck who have a couple of hours a week or month (flexible with your schedule) to help us move large donations (such as furniture) to the homes of those in need. This is an urgent request! Please consider helping volunteer. Call Mark 720-799-9297 if you can help.
