Notes from Fr. Tom

Dear Loyola Parishioners & Visitors:

South Sudan. Last Friday, staff from both the Jesuit Conference and US Bishops' Conference discussed the South Sudan situation, what the Bishops' Conference is doing, and what the parish and Jesuits might be able to do. The Jesuit Conference staff reached out to the East Africa Province to find out what Jesuit presence is in South Sudan and what, if anything, we might be able to do.

Visiting Priests. While Fr. Roy Joseph is away to attend a weekend workshop and make a home visit, newly ordained Jesuit Fr. Jason Brauninger will be helping with parish liturgies for the next couple weeks. Fr. Stephen Yavorsky, SJ will be in and out as is his custom, taking a break from his pastoral duties in KC. And, the weekend of July 15-16, we will have a visiting Salesian priest, Fr. Anthony Justin Amalraj, conducting a mission appeal at all the Masses.

Parish Office. I will be away July 9-17, so Fr. Dirk Dunfee will be the primary priest contact during this time. My expectation is Kathy will reduce her office hours during this two-week period, and deal only with things already on the calendar and part of her weekly routine, e.g. data input, bulletin, etc., and an emergency, e.g. funeral, pipe burst, etc.

Happy 4th of July! The day we celebrate our liberation from England, recognizing that in an interdependent world, we can never say we as a nation are liberated from anyone or completely independent. We are bound together as a community of nations sharing a common humanity and common world which we ought not destroy for our profit in the short-run while we are still alive because we don't care about the long-run when others are alive, but we will all be dead and have nothing to gain any longer.

Fr. Tom

The Social Justice Ministry in partnership with Together Colorado invites you to join us for our next meeting this Wednesday, July 5 from 6:30 – 8:00 pm in Brady Hall. At this meeting, we will synthesize the social issues we heard through our June fellowship table conversations and brainstorm how to present this to our broader parish. All are welcome!

The second collection this weekend is the Peter Pence collection which supports the charitable work of Pope Francis. He will reach out to those who are marginalized and suffering around the globe, especially those suffering the effects of war, violence, natural disasters and religious persecution.

CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME

Our Community Garden Needs a Name

CCH would like the children of our parish to choose a patron saint to watch over the fruits of our labor. Ballots with the name of several saints (or choose your own) can be found at the entrances of the church through this weekend. Color the picture and vote for a saint. Place your choice in a ballot box. The votes will be tallied. The saint with the most votes wins and will be announced July 8. A plaque with our patron saint's name will be placed in the garden this summer.
