Notes from Fr. Tom

Dear Loyola Parishioners & Visitors:

I received this email from the Provincial Assistant for Social Ministries on Wednesday, and wanted to share it with you and invite your participation. One of the “calls” that surfaced in our parish examen was to be attentive and responsive to the needs of the immigrant and refugee communities. The issue at hand—immigrants regularly reporting to ICE and working towards legal status now being told they may be deported—is one that impacts our parish.

Fr. Tom

Dear Friends,

I normally try not to send out action alerts outside of our normal monthly issues of Compassion, the UCS province faith-justice newsletter, but some of the members of our UCS province family are hurting and need our help.

Juan Rodriguez is the father of three daughters, two of whom, Rebecca and Karen, are students at Cristo Rey Jesuit Houston High School. Since 2007, Juan has been going to periodic check-ins at the Immigration and Customs Enforcement headquarters in Houston because he is in the United States illegally. Because he has a family and no criminal record, Mr. Rodriguez became the beneficiary of prosecutorial discretion under the Obama administration, and the number of check-ins was reduced to one per year. But when he showed up for his annual check-in this February he was told that he would be deported back to El Salvador. He was given a reprieve to attend Rebecca’s graduation from Cristo Rey Jesuit, but now he is expected to be deported by the end of June. A moving story about the family’s situation – and their love for each other – can be found at:

<http://www.houstonchronicle.com/news/houston-texas/houston/amp/The-rules-have-changed-Houston-family-surprised-11192377.php>

The immigration advocacy group FIEL HOUSTON is working to support the Rodriguez family. They need support from the community – and from our Ignatian family. FIEL is looking to collect 10,000 signatures which will be presented to a judge at some point - all the petition signatures are a show of support and a request that Mr. Rodriguez be allowed to remain in the US. A link to the page where you can sign and submit your name to the petition is here <https://fielhouston.org/rodriguez/>. Please sign your name, and then forward this email widely. Paul Posoli, the president of Cristo Rey Jesuit, said that there are currently about 2,000 signatures – let’s help push that number way up!

The randomly enforced but increasingly harsh deportation policies of the new administration are hurting families and children, husbands and wives. As members of the Ignatian family, please speak out for our sisters from Cristo Rey Jesuit, their father Juan and their mother Celia, and call for ICE to rescind his deportation orders.

In solidarity,

Mary

NEWS AND EVENTS

IGNATIAN VOLUNTEER CORPS

Information Meeting Today

The meeting is today between 11:30 and 1:00 in Brady Hall. Meet Erin Benson, Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) Denver regional director, and learn about IVC volunteer service and spiritual reflection opportunities for people age 50 and better.

YOUNG ADULTS AT THE ROCKIES GAME

Game this Thursday, RSVP by this Monday

Young Adults, for this month's 'Happy Hour,' join us for a Rockies game this Thursday, June 15 at 6:40 pm. RSVP to Sarah at youngadults@loyoladenvver.org to get your ticket. Please RSVP by Monday, June 12.

SOCIAL JUSTICE MINISTRY

Visit With Us During Sunday Fellowship in June

The Loyola Social Justice Ministry invites you to participate in 'intentional fellowship.' During our regular fellowship on June 11 and 25 after the 10 am Masses and on June 18 after the 7:30 Mass, we hope to further build relationship and listen to one another to identify what social justice issues are most impacting our parish community. Announcements at the end of Mass will provide details on how to participate if you would like. Or simply look for our ministry members wearing 'Together Colorado' stickers. They will be leading table conversations. For more information, please contact Celesté Martinez at 303-968-6580 or celeste@togethercolorado.org.

CARE FOR OUR COMMON HOME

Potluck and Movie Night, Saturday, June 24

Join us at 6:15 pm in Brady Hall for a potluck supper and a viewing of Before the Flood which is a 2016 documentary film about climate change directed by Fisher Stevens. The film is the product of a three-year journey that took place with Stevens and co-creator Leonardo DiCaprio. They visited every corner of the globe to document the devastating impacts of climate change and questioned humanity's ability to reverse what may be the most catastrophic problem mankind has ever faced. Martin Scorsese is an executive producer.

SENIOR SUPPORT DINNER

We will be providing and serving dinner to over 70 homeless seniors on Thursday, June 29. Thank you to the Knights of Peter Claver Ladies Auxiliary for providing the meal. If you can help by providing any extra needed items or by serving, please contact Charlotte at 303-861-7433 or Delores at 720-937-2924. Please bring prepared food to Senior Support Services at 846 E. 18th Ave. (18th and Emerson) by 5 pm.
